DLA Piper Denmark won the prize for Indirect Tax Firm of the Year and has held the position since last year.

“We are incredibly proud of this honor and extend our heartfelt thanks to our clients for their continued trust in our firm,” says Mario Fernandez, Senior Director.

Internationally, DLA Piper was also named winner in the following country-specific categories:

- United Kingdom Tax Firm of the Year
- Germany Tax Litigation Law Firm of the Year
- Hungary Indirect Tax Law Firm of the Year
- Hungary Tax Litigation Law Firm of the Year
- Hungary Transfer Pricing Law Firm of the Year

DLA Piper was also awarded Tax Law Firm of the Year, Indirect Tax Law Firm of the Year, and Transfer Pricing Law Firm of the Year, in addition to winning 11 other awards at the annual International Tax Review (ITR) Awards.

DLA Piper was also awarded in the following litigation-specific categories:

- Impact Case of the Year: Luxembourg and Engie v Commission
- Impact Deal of the Year: Candy Capital joint venture with DWTCA

The annual ITR Awards recognize the best tax law firms, accountancies, in-house teams, and practitioners globally in tax and transfer pricing.
