

Chambers and Partners Europe Guide 2019

Det anerkendte ranking bureau Chambers and Partners har netop offentliggjort resultatet af deres Europe Guide for 2019, der er baseret på research, indberetning af sager, klientudtalelser og interviews med konkurrenter. Resultatet viser bl.a. en fremgang inden for skatteret, og 14 dygtige advokater fra DLA Piper Denmark er fremhævet som ledende inden for deres respektive fagområder. Her kan du læse, hvad Chambers and Partners skriver om vores rankede advokater.

- "Joachim Kundert Jensen handles financing and refinancing mandates pertaining to projects, acquisitions and real estate portfolios. He represents corporates and banks."
- "Michael Klöcker has a varied practice, ranging from cartel investigations to merger notifications. Sources highlight that "he has a natural intuition for competition law and also has a true understanding of the businesses he assists with."
- "Sources describe Karsten Pedersen as a "good technical lawyer" and praise his highly active practice in the corporate/M&A market. He acts for business owners, private equity funds and investors on acquisitions and divestments. He represented Adelis Equity in its platform acquisition of Søgemedier."
- "Michael Vinther handles the divestment of companies to investors and private equity funds, with experience of deals in the IT and transportation sectors. He advised investment company Artha Kapitalforvaltning and the management of Umove on the disposal of the latter to Cube Infrastructure Fund II."
- "Niels Erik Nielsen has vast experience in private and public M&A mandates. Sources praise his negotiation capabilities and solution-oriented approach."
- "Head of department Sebastian Ingversen advised TDC on its acquisition of Plenti. One interviewee says that he is "good at facilitating the process" and "pleasant to work with."
- "A source refers to Georg Lett as one of Denmark's most "prominent lawyers." He has extensive experience in arbitrations and litigations, often involving the financial and insurance sectors."
- "René Offersen is praised by sources for his litigation skills and has experience acting on behalf of PE funds and private companies on arbitrations, often involving cross-border elements."
- "Sources praise Nina Wedsted's advocacy skills, saying: "She gets to the point and is very focused." Interviewees further highlight her pragmatic approach, saying: "She openly speaks her mind about what is feasible." She is a key partner at DLA Piper Denmark and has experience in litigation relating to restrictive covenants and summary dismissals. She also advises on the post-acquisition replacement of senior executives."

- "Henrik Sjørsløv is noted by market commentators as an important figure in the market. He is experienced handling a range of insolvency matters on behalf of bankrupt debtors."
- "Aarhus-based Jan Bech wins praise from clients for being "very skilled" and for his strong reputation amongst creditors. He is particularly experienced advising on the restructuring of private companies."

Se alle resultater fra Chambers and Partners her.