Eskil Bielefeldt specialises in the sale and purchase of enterprises.

Eskil acts in particular as a trusted advisor to owner managers of small and medium-sized enterprises.

He is often involved in board-level activities or advisory boards in order to prepare and optimise enterprises prior to a sales process.

Moreover, Eskil deals with shareholder issues, including shareholders' agreements.

Finally, he assists in drafting and negotiating contracts.

Eskil is a professional board member and serves on the board of directors of a large number of companies.
