Anette Moll Berg advises especially on intellectual property rights, focusing on trademarks and designs as well as on marketing law and commercial contracts.

Anette has a right of audience before the Danish Supreme Court and is recognised by The Legal 500.

She caters for clients particularly within retail, fashion and design, but also for clients in other sectors such as the industrial and technology sectors, the life science sector and the food industry. Anette primarily advises clients working in design, fashion, arts and crafts, etc. on issues of trademark and copyright law.

Her clients include Danish luxury lighting design company Louis Poulsen and she is its regular trademark advisor, handling trademarks, designs and copyright interests as well as advising on IP infringements etc.

Anette assists clients in the selection and design of trademarks, in registration strategies relating to trademarks and designs as well as in the use and enforcement of rights. Anette also provides advice on issues of marketing and consumer law. Finally, Anette assists in drafting and negotiating commercial contracts.

Anette lectures in IP and marketing law and has authored a chapter on design law in Danish Intellectual Property Law I (published in Danish only), Gads Forlag and DIFI, 2019.
