Kristoffer Dysted Bjarkov specialises in insolvency law and restructuring.

Kristoffer has in-depth expertise within insolvency law, including bankruptcy administration, in-court restructuring proceedings, advice relating to out-of-court turnaround processes, advice on the sale and purchase of distressed enterprises as well as advice to creditors with exposure to insolvent enterprises.

Kristoffer has a right of audience before the Danish High Courts and is a certified insolvency lawyer.

He advises both enterprises in distress and creditors on the initiating and handling of bankruptcy and restructuring proceedings. Kristoffer also advises distressed enterprises, financial creditors and other creditors on issues concerning collateral arrangements, avoidance, business transfers and management liability.

In addition, he advises on the compulsory dissolution of companies, including on the restoration and mergers of companies in compulsory dissolution. Moreover, Kristoffer also deals with voluntary liquidation of solvent enterprises. Furthermore, Kristoffer is engaged in issues of general commercial law and regularly conducts litigation before the Danish courts.

Kristoffer co-authored the article "Petitions for bankruptcy, third party payments and avoidance under the Danish Bankruptcy Act" (published in Danish only), Erhvervsjuridisk Tidsskrift (a Danish journal of commercial law), no. 2, 2022.
