

DLA Piper advises on the purchase of shares in Daniaco Holding ApS

Eskil Bielefeldt
Partner

Andreas Arent Jespersen
Attorney, Director

Sanela Lulic
Senior Project Manager

DLA Piper has assisted the shareholders of Daniaco Holding ApS on the sale of a major shareholding in Daniaco Holding ApS to its current CEO and owner Frank Kruse-Jensen, who, thereby, has increased his existing ownership interest. The transaction was announced on 16 September 2020.

Daniaco Holding ApS is the parent company of Dania Connect A/S, which is engaged in container-shipping activities, and Trepco A/S, which deals with the maintenance and repair of container frames.

We would like to congratulate the parties on the transaction.

For further reading on the transaction, please see the press release (in Danish).

DLA Piper's M&A team was made up of Eskil Bielefeldt, Andreas Arent Jespersen, and Sanela Lulic.