The Danish headquartered open source CMS platform, Umbraco A/S, has been sold to the Swedish investment firm, Monterro.

The Umbraco Group has physical presence in Denmark, UK, and USA, and is considered the fastest growing open source .NET CMS in the world with over 700,000 active installs.

Based in Stockholm, Oslo and Munich, Monterro is a growth investor targeting software companies in the Nordic region.

DLA Piper's core M&A team headed by Michael Vinther, John Emil Lyngfeldt Svenson, Andreas Brasch-Thomsen and Andreas Egeblad Arendt, advised the sellers of Umbraco A/S on all legal aspects of the transaction.
