

Chambers and Partners Europe Guide 2022

Once again, DLA Piper is ranked in the prestigious Chambers and Partners Europe Guide 2022. Besides being ranked within several practice areas - with progress in both Real Estate and Tax - two of our leading female lawyers are ranked as Up and Coming.

Emilie Møller is ranked within Real Estate and Mikala Berg Dueholm within Public Procurement.

The results of the Europe Guide covering 2021 are based on research, case submissions, client opinions, and interviews with competitors.

Selected client quotes:

Clients appreciate Emilie Møller for her "ability to grasp problems and see the commercial potential in solving these problems."

"Nina Wedsted is an extremely knowledgeable bet when we are in need of employment law advice with a firm commercial angle."

"Michael Klöcker is the consummate competition lawyer. He will fight hard for his client. He is commercial and to the point," remarks one source.

"Marlene Winther Plas has extensive knowledge and understands the complexity of IT law, and has the ability to advise in a way to create the best solution."

"Karsten Pedersen facilitated a smooth process, assuring that critical business matters were addressed in a timely manner," a client says, adding that he "helped us to be confident on what was important and what not to argue about."

Clients say Michael Vinther is "very good in negotiations and a good networker" and is able to "see the full picture."

"Jakob Schilder-Knudsen is outstanding and has a broad but deep understanding of taxes relating to transactions."

"Mario Fernandez's work is brilliant. He is quick, technically very good and gives practical advice and assessment."

See all rankings.

Services

Finans, Corporate M&A, Konkurrenceret, Insolvensretlige kerneområder, Skat, Fast ejendom, IP og teknologi, Employment, Udbud
