

Once again, DLA Piper is ranked in the prestigious Chambers and Partners Europe Guide 2023

Emilie Møller
Partner, LL.M., Head of Real Estate,
Denmark

Christian Benedicts en-Nislev
Partner, MBA, LL.B.

Henrik Frandsen
Partner

Henrik Sjørsløv
Partner, Head of Finance, Projects
& Restructuring

DLA Piper Denmark is delighted to learn that a number of our attorneys have been ranked for the first time or have improved their rankings in Chambers and Partners Europe in its newly published Europe Guide 2023.

The attorneys include Emilie Møller, Christian Benedicts en-Nislev, and Henrik Frandsen. Congratulations to them all. Special congratulations to Henrik Sjørsløv on advancing to Band 1 within Restructuring & Insolvency.

We are also delighted that a large number of our attorneys maintain their rankings, and that our firm is now also ranked within Shipping and moving up within Tax.

The rankings of the Europe Guide covering 2022 are based on research, submissions, interviews with client referees and competitors.

We are grateful to all our clients for their excellent feedback on our work over the review period.

Selected client quotes:

"Henrik is a terrifically strong lawyer and a strong business man, able to see where the next potential big insolvency matter and dispute might be."

"Mikala Berg Dueholm is quick to get to grips with what the EU supply tender deals with and always gives a quick response to inquiries."

"Nina Wedsted is very knowledgeable. Her advice is always to the point and provides very good guidance."

"Jakob Schilder-Knudsen works tirelessly to ensure that every case is approached from the right position. He is very knowledgeable in all tax-related issues."

See all rankings.