DLA Piper has advised the owners of INGEMANN COMPONENTS A/S in connection with the sale to RATOS-owned LEDiL, Finland.

LEDiL is a global market leader in secondary optics for LED lighting, and INGEMANN COMPONENTS A/S is Northern Europe's leading company in optical diffusing and reflective components.

LEDiL will acquire all shares in INGEMANN COMPONENTS, creating a combined company that will act as a one-stop-shop consulting, service, and subcontracting company for indoor lighting manufacturers primarily in Europe.

DLA Piper has advised the owners of INGEMANN COMPONENTS in all aspects of the sale, with a team consisting of Partner Kristian Skovgaard Larsen, Attorney Cecilie Kallmayer, and Senior Project Manager Sanela Lulic.

Attorney Carl Erik Skovgaard has been a board member of INGEMANN COMPONENTS A/S and has implemented sales maturation measures with the other board members, together with the owner family.
