

Chambers and Partners Europe Guide 2025

Martin Lavesen
Partner, Country Managing Partner

DLA Piper has once again been ranked in the Chambers and Partners Europe Guide 2025 across multiple practice areas, with advancements in Energy and Employment. Several of our lawyers have also received individual rankings.

The results of the Europe Guide covering 2024 are based on research, case submissions, client opinions, and interviews with competitors.

Selected client quotes

"Louise Krarup Simonsen has a good name and a strong international reputation. She is also a very skilled negotiator with international clients."

"Emilie Møller is always very on top of each transaction; everything from the minor, complex details to the broader process and timeline. She is very responsive, pragmatic and highly skilled."

"Michael Vinther is highly skilled and has extensive experience and knowledge."

"Jakob Schilder-Knudsen truly is an outstanding lawyer in the market."

"We are very pleased with Mikala Berg Dueholm's level of service and quality of advice."

"Henrik Sjørslev is a very skilled insolvency and bankruptcy lawyer. He is pleasant to work with and good at coming up with solutions."

"Nina Wedsted is a dedicated, proactive and commercially-minded partner. She offers high quality and is very responsive."

"Niels Gram-Hanssen combines unmatched skill with an incredible approachability. He's truly in a league of his own."

"Per Astrup Madsen has deep, expert knowledge. He is also very responsive."

"Marlene Winther Plas is to the point, a great communicator and good at understanding different businesses and sectors. She cares about her clients and has a good ability to identify their needs."

"When it comes to VAT, Mario Fernandez is the go-to lawyer."

See all the rankings here.