DLA Piper is pleased to announce that it is the lead sponsor of Mergermarket's Nordic M&A and Private Equity Forum 2018. This conference, which sets the agenda for the region's cross-border M&A, Private Equity and financing activities in the year ahead, will take place on March 15, 2018 at the Radisson Blu Waterfront Hotel in Stockholm.

Members of DLA Piper's global Corporate, M&A and Private Equity teams – including partners Tim Wright (London), Markus Oksanen (Helsinki), Sveinung Mjaugedal (Oslo), Christian Fenner (Oslo), Kaare Oftedal (Oslo), Ilkka Liljeroos (Helsinki), Anders Malmström (Stockholm), Nicholas Lerche-Gredal (Copenhagen) and Sebastian Ingversen (Copenhagen) – will attend the conference.

The event attracts corporates, private equity houses, venture funds, banks and advisory firms from across Europe and connects management teams with advisors, helping to update all on the latest trends in the deal market. The agenda includes timely topics on technology, market trends and regulatory issues.

Partner and head of European Private Equity, Tim Wright, will be speaking at the event and will share key highlights from DLA Piper's Global M&A Intelligence Survey 2018, an annual survey analysing over 1,000 private M&A deals and offering an unique insight into current trends in M&A. Markus Oksanen, DLA Piper's Head of Intellectual Property & Technology in Finland, who will also be speaking at the event, will be covering regulations, risks, bank systems and innovations in the Fintech space.
